

Calling from your contacts list

With TeleMeetUp, you now can place a direct call to any of your contacts; to make it happen, navigate to the contacts section, and use the call icon located next to all your contacts.

Choose the audio/video and recording options, and click on start call.

Depending upon the online/offline status of your contact, it will ring and/or will send an invite to his/her email address.